- Observe, report and record changes in residents' physical and emotional conditions and assist with the maintenance of records reflecting the condition and care given for each resident.
- Make routine rounds with the Registered Nurses (RNs).
- Take residents to and from activities, appointments, and co-operate at all times in aiding with social, religious, and recreational activities.
- Assist with meal serving, feeding, and ensuring that residents requiring assistance receive it.
- Provide palliative care, including post-mortem care when necessary.
- Check equipment routinely for maintenance/repairs.
- Share the responsibility for the care of equipment in the facility and personal belongings of the residents.
- Show others how to perform tasks and duties.
- Communicate and co-operate satisfactorily with residents, family members, volunteers, staff, and others.
- Attend in-service and Staff Development Programs and nursing staff meetings.

What Qualifications are Required?

- Personal Support Worker Certificate (8 month) or other qualifications as may be noted in Section 52 of Ontario Regulation 246/22 for the Fixing Long-term Care Act, 2021, or equivalent.
- Previous experience working in Nursing in a Long-term Care setting.
- Ability to satisfactorily operate nursing equipment.
- Mature person in good physical and mental health.
- Ability to work and communicate with the residents, staff, and others.
- Ability to speak, read, write, and understand English.
- Proven ability to follow an established work procedure/ schedule and complete all assigned tasks within the timelines as set out, with minimal supervision.
- Ability to work any of the scheduled shifts (Days, Evenings, Nights) – including weekends – shift patterns may be changed to meet operational needs in the Home.
